Instructor: William "Bill" Riley
You have seen the musicals and plays at Henrico Theatre Company at The Cultural Arts Center- now experience how it happens behind the curtain! Learn basic stage set design and build. No special skills are required. It all starts with the script and director's vision. Then it is up to us to create that scene on stage. This spring's production is How to Succeed at Business Without Really Trying.
Winter: 3/29-5/17. Mondays, 5:30-8:30 PM
Sliding Scale/Pay-As-You-Will tuition

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Class registration is offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Unless otherwise noted, all classes are designed for students ages 18 and older. Full payment is required at the time of registration to reserve your space.

Each class or workshop requires a minimum number of participants to run. Registrations are reviewed one week prior to the start date to determine if enrollment requirements have been met. If a class is unable to proceed, registered students will be notified. All class-related communication will be sent to the email address associated with your account, so please ensure your information is up to date.

We encourage early registration to secure your spot in your preferred class. Please note that class dates and times are subject to change. For the most current information, visit our website at artsglenallen.com and browse active class listings.
