

ALB Asia Top 30 Litigators 2026

Asia's litigation landscape is shifting fast. Trade tensions, surging cryptocurrency disputes, and increasingly aggressive cross-border enforcement are keeping the region's courts busier — and the work harder — than ever. This year's Asia Top 30 Litigators list spotlights the practitioners who have not only kept pace with that shifting terrain but shaped it, winning the landmark cases, setting the precedents, and taking on the most complex mandates their jurisdictions have to offer.

Asia's litigation landscape is in the midst of a defining moment. Courts across the region are grappling with disputes of growing complexity and scale — from cryptocurrency fraud and sovereign energy conflicts to landmark criminal trials and precedent-setting constitutional challenges. Against a backdrop of economic uncertainty and rapid regulatory change, this year's Asia Top 30 Litigators represent the sharpest courtroom minds shaping the law across their respective jurisdictions.

Bazul Ashhab, managing partner and head of dispute resolution at Oon & Bazul in Singapore, has had a productive year across a range of complex, high-value disputes. He led efforts to set aside a worldwide asset injunction, advised on a major cross-border fraud investigation, and secured several notable firsts in Singapore's cryptocurrency recovery landscape.
