Earle Wilkes

Director of Equity Matters

Why equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) matters – past, present, and future

Earle Wilkes is the Director of Equity Matters and a leading voice in the field of equity, diversity and inclusion.

In this interactive live-streamed seminar, Earle will share the experiences that fuel his passion for EDI and explore why it's not only a moral imperative, but also a strategic necessity in business, education, and society.

Together, we'll examine the debates and controversies surrounding EDI – what they reveal about our present, and what they signal for the future. Most importantly, Earle will challenge us to consider the role each of us can play in creating meaningful, inclusive change.

Join us for an honest, thought-provoking conversation about the impact of EDI in our world – and your role in it.
