International Legal Finance Association Expands Global Reach with Loopa Finance

WASHINGTON, DC – The International Legal Finance Association (ILFA), the sole global trade association for commercial legal finance companies, is pleased to announce that Loopa Finance (formerly Qanlex) has joined its membership. The addition of Loopa Finance further strengthens ILFA's influence across Latin America and Europe, underscoring its mission to support the responsible growth of legal finance globally.

Loopa Finance was founded in 2020 and is a leading litigation and arbitration funder across Latin America and Europe. By joining ILFA, Loopa Finance becomes part of the industry's leading forum for best practices, transparency and advocacy in commercial legal finance globally.

"Loopa Finance's membership marks an exciting milestone for ILFA as we continue expanding our reach across key global markets," said Rupert Cunningham, Director of Growth and Membership Engagement, ILFA. "Latin America's legal finance sector is developing rapidly, and the addition of a firm with Loopa's regional expertise and commitment to innovation enhances our collective ability to shape the future of this industry. Loopa also adds to our growing membership in continental Europe, which will support our engagement with national parliaments and the European Union."

"Joining ILFA marks an important step for Loopa Finance, as it underscores our commitment to elevating the industry and advancing the professionalism of our services. It also strengthens our ability to contribute to a more transparent, innovative, and responsible funding ecosystem," said Juliana Giorgi, General Counsel LatAm at Loopa Finance.

About the International Legal Finance Association

The International Legal Finance Association (ILFA) represents the global commercial legal finance community, and its mission is to engage, educate and influence legislative, regulatory and judicial landscapes as the voice of the commercial legal finance industry. It is the only global association of commercial legal finance companies and is an independent, non-profit trade association promoting the highest standards of operation and service for the commercial legal finance sector. ILFA has local chapter representation around the world.

About Loopa

Loopa Finance is a litigation-funding firm operating across Latin America and continental Europe. It brings capital, analytics, and technology to structure funding models and claim monetization solutions that enable meritorious disputes to proceed without shifting financial risk to clients or consumers.
