

The Pillars of Effective Classroom Management

Clear Expectations

Specific, actionable, and tangible expectations for student behavior

Teaching and Assessment

Teaching, assessing, and remediating expectations and routines

Positive Relationships

Building positive relationships with each student

Authentic Engagement

Engaging students in authentic classroom activities

Behavior Support

Supporting and celebrating positive behaviors