

Essential Questions to Improve Classroom Management

1. What are you not seeing?
2. When you are speaking, who is truly listening?
3. Are you identifying the changes in classroom expectations and checking for understanding as you transition between activities?
4. Are you treating individual student behavior issues with whole-class solutions/reprimands?
5. Are you expecting your classroom to run on autopilot?
6. Is the behavior truly bad behavior or simply adolescent excitement?
7. Is the student's behavior masking academic deficiencies?
