

The Pillars of Effective Classroom Management

Specific Expectations

Clear and understandable rules and guidelines for student behavior.

Teaching Routines

Establishing consistent and predictable procedures for classroom activities.

Positive Relationships

Building trust and rapport between teachers and students.

Authentic Engagement

Encouraging active participation and interest in classroom activities.

Positive Reinforcement

Recognizing and rewarding positive behaviors to encourage their repetition.