

COOKING SHOW

God knows you from the inside out, so much so that God even knows how many hairs are on your head.

When you go into your child's room, cuddle them and say: "Good morning, [child's name]! (Hold up their lovey.) How important is [name of lovey] to you? Very important! You love it a lot! Well, YOU are important to God. God loves you a lot!"

While on the go, take turns naming things that are really important to you. Talk about how every person in the world is important to God because God made them.

Sing the following words to the tune of "Three Blind Mice": "God made me. God made me. God made me. God made me.
God made me amazing and wonderful!
God made me amazing and wonderful!
God made me amazing and wonderful!
God made me."

Cuddle with your child and pray: "God, help [child's name] and me remember that we are important to You, not because of the things we do, but because You made us and love us. Help us treat other people as important to You too."
