Northampton Primary Academy Trust RE Knowledge Organiser

| Why do Christians give gifts at Christmas? – Year 1 Autumn 2 |  |                                       |
|--|--|---------------------------------------|
| Christian  | Someone who believes in the teachings of Jesus.                                | Christians believe that God's gift    |
| Christmas  | A special time before and after December 25th to celebrate the birth of Jesus. | of Jesus is the greatest gift of all. |
| precious   | Something which is very important to someone. It could be rare or expensive.   |                                       |
| gift   | A present or something that is given.  |                                       |
| Nativity   | The birth of Jesus Christ, celebrated by Christians at Christmas.              |                                       |
| gold   | A precious metal.  |                                       |
| frankincense   | A precious spice with a special aroma (smell).                                 |                                       |
| myrrh  | A precious liquid spice.   |                                       |
| Bethlehem  | The town where Jesus was born.   |                                       |
| shepherd   | A person who looks after sheep.  |                                       |
| wise men   | Clever people who studied the stars.   |                                       |
| manger   | A box which had food placed in it to feed animals.                             |                                       |
| stable   | A building where animals were kept.  |                                       |
| prayer   | Talking to God.  |                                       |

