Farm to Fork – Knowledge Organiser - Year 2 Autumn 2

Vocabulary

Continent	A continent is a very large area of land, such as Africa or Asia, that consists of several countries.
Equator	The equator is an imaginary line around the earth that is halfway in between the North and South Pole.
Crops	A plant that is grown by farmers (e.g., fruit and vegetables)
Harvest	The gathering of a crop.
Reared	If you rear a young animal, you keep and look after it until it is old enough to be used for food.
Food Miles	The distance food travels to get to your plate.
Climate	The weather conditions and patterns in a place
Import	Goods or products brought in from another country in order to be sold.
Export	To sell products and transport them to another country.

Map of the World - Continents and Oceans

7 Continents

Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Europe, Antarctica and Oceania

5 Oceans

Pacific, Indian, Atlantic, Arctic and Southern

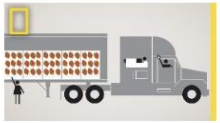

Where food comes from in the UK:

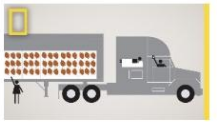

The process from Farm to Fork

grow

harvest

transport

wash and package

transport

buy

Advantages of buying local	Disadvantages of buying local
Buying local cares for the envrionment Buying local means we have more knowledge about where food has come from and how it has been processed. Buying local creates jobs for peoples Buying local means fresher food.	Buying local means you can only eat vegetables grown during that season. Buying local is often more expensive. Buying local means there is not as much variety of food to buy.

© All rights reserved Northampton Primary Academy Trust 2025-2026