The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed Sunday, November 2nd Readings

1st Reading: Wisdom 3:1—9

The souls of the just, though proved as gold in a furnace, shall not be touched by torment. By placing their trust in God, the faithful will abide in love, grace, and mercy.

2nd Reading: Romans 6:3—9

The Christian lives in union with the risen Christ, a union that finds its term when the Christian will one day be "with Christ" in glory.

Gospel: John 6:37—40

Jesus rejects no one who comes to him. Everyone who believes in the Son will have eternal life and be raised up on the last day.

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica Sunday, November 9th Readings

Ezekiel 47:1—2, 8—9, 12
1 Corinthians 3:9c—11, 16—17
John 2:13—22

Book of Remembrance

Please write names of deceased family members and friends who have passed away this last year or whose names have not been previously entered whom you would like to keep in prayer and remembrance during November.

Pope's Intention for November:

For the prevention of suicide
Let us pray, that those who are tempted by suicide might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.
