

Arterial Ultrasound Instructions

Arterial Ultrasound is done to assess for blockages in your leg arteries. You may require this study if you have leg pain or claudication or if you are at high risk for peripheral vascular disease.

On the day of the test you can take your medications as usual. Do not use any lotion or moisturizer on your legs. Wear loose clothing, men can wear boxers or shorts.

Your test is scheduled for

Date: _____

Time: _____