

2022

February

Nature Journal of the Month

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
		If you were not a human, which nature element would you be, and why? 1	List 5 different biotic creatures that thrive in the wetlands. Feel free to draw them too! 2	Write and draw about 1 ecosystem. 3	Stick and press 3 flowers that have the colour yellow. Examples: Marigold, sunflowers, etc) 4	Draw and paint leaves you see outside using 5 different mediums. 5
Scrapbook about any mountain, feel free to write about your hikings experiences too! 6	List 5 celebrities that have helped the environment through some action. 7	Create a WINTER themed page! Try theming it one colour. 8	Make a sketchnote on the Food Chain in an ecosystem. 9	Stick and describe 5 different pulses in your daily recipes. Moong Dal, Rajma, Etc. 10	Write about a female scientist who helped/led a environmental study. 11	Make characters out of the clouds you see. You can make a storyline too. 12
Make a comic strip about birds and their everyday lives. 13	List 3 things you absolutely love about nature and why. 14	Draw something using organic matter (Leaves, seeds, flowers, mud) 15	Draw 5 different types of eggs from different birds. Include the type, and size of the egg. 16	Do a rainbow of fruits and vegetables along with their nutrition values. 17	Write a quote about marine life or the ocean. 18	Research and write about 2 environment friendly inventions. 19
Write and draw 10 vegetables in your mother tongue. 20	Find out the biodegrading time for a single lego, design an eco-alternative. 21	Draw different types of mushrooms, include their type, and toxin level. 22	Draw about different seasonal and local root vegetables. 23	Create a flower that ideally represents yourself. 24	Research about Bioluminescent biotic creatures and how it helps their survival. 25	Sketch and write about carnivorous plants! Add their diet in as well. 26
List 10 objects that you use that are not environmentally friendly, and their alternatives. 27	Write about your favourite experience this month. 28					