Opportunity to Serve Your Community

Join the Contra Costa Resource Conservation District Board of Directors

If you care about the health of our local landscapes, the resilience of our natural resources, and the well-being of Contra Costa County communities, we invite you to consider this meaningful leadership role. Serving on the Contra Costa Resource Conservation District (CCRCRD) Board of Directors is an opportunity to make a lasting impact on the place we call home.

Who we are looking for:

We welcome applicants who bring:

- A commitment to conservation, sustainable land management, or environmental stewardship
- An interest in public service and collaborative problem-solving
- Experience in agriculture, natural resources, community engagement, education, or governance (helpful but not required)

Eligibility Requirements: (as outlined in Division 9 of the CA Public Resources Code)

- Be registered to vote in California and;
- Reside within the County and;
- Either own real property in the county
 - Or have served for two years or more as a CCRCRD Associate director or
 - Be a designated agent of a resident landowner within the County.

Key Details:
