In our Bible Story we will see that we are made for community. God led two people in the Bible to become friends. They really needed each other, and God leads us to have friends too.

DISCUSS & DISCOVER

1. Jonathan and David promised to be friends and help each other. How does their friendship encourage you to act in your friendships?
2. Jesus said the greatest love is for a friend to lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13). That is exactly what Jesus did for us. How can it change our lives and help us when we know that Jesus is the perfect friend?
3. We are made for community, but sometimes it can seem difficult to find good friends. Have you ever worried that people do not like you? What do you think you should do when you are worried about this?

Pray: God, thank You for giving us friendships that help us follow You. Lead us to friends who will follow after You with us. Thank You for loving us and sending Your Son, Jesus, to make the way for us to know You and love You forever. Help us always remember that Jesus changes the game. Amen.
