In Our Bible Story we learned that God's love is kind. God sent Peter to Cornelius' house to tell him a special message that everyone who believes in Jesus can be forgiven. Forgiveness means that God "lets go of our sin." Sins are the wrong choices we make. God forgives us when we ask Him because He is kind, and He loves us. God's love is not just for some people and not others. God's love is kind, and it is for everyone. When we believe in Jesus, we can ask God to forgive our sins and wrong choices.
