Notes

Jesus gave us the Holy Spirit to counsel us and to encourage us to go and make disciples. Disciple-making isn't complicated, we simply need to invite people into what we are already doing. Most people say God is with them, but function like they are on their own. Jesus does not call us to carry it alone. When the lifting gets heavier, know that you're not alone. That you have a partner who will empower you to do greater things when you feel you have reached your limit.
