About the Resort

Experience alpine variety in Andermatt, a resort where traditional village charm meets the vastness of a modern ski area. Set at the heart of the Swiss Alps, Andermatt is part of the SkiArena Andermatt-Sedrun-Disentis, offering over 180 km of pistes that stretch across two cantons. The Gemsstock is the jewel for advanced skiers, with long, challenging descents and famous freeride terrain (as always – off-piste only with a guide). Intermediates will enjoy the wide, sunlit slopes on Nätschen and Sedrun, while beginners can find their confidence on gentle practice areas. With high-altitude terrain up to nearly 3,000 m, snow reliability is excellent, and the views across the Gotthard region are nothing short of inspiring.

Lodging & Comfort

Our base is the Hotel Piz Badus, a cosy and welcoming spot in the center of Andermatt, where breakfast is provided. The TC will arrange a dinner on Saturday evening so you'll have the opportunity to enjoy a hearty Swiss meal after a full day on the slopes. The hotel's location makes it easy to reach the lifts and explore the village atmosphere in the evenings. Andermatt's mix of alpine tradition and understated elegance sets the perfect tone for a short weekend getaway: authentic, relaxed, and thoroughly Swiss.

*The late sign-up price will apply to sign-ups submitted after 21:00 on the last Early-Sign-up date.
