If, after making an application, any of the information given in the Supplementary Information Form or on any other form, letter or document associated with the application, changes, the Headmaster must be informed immediately. Failure to do so may prejudice the application. False information, or the omission of material information, may result in disqualification, or the loss of a place after it has been offered, accepted or taken up.

The London Oratory School collects and holds personal information relating to our pupils and may also receive information about them from their previous school, local authority and/or the Department for Education (DfE). We also hold prospective parents' contact details in order to communicate during and following the admissions process. If an application is unsuccessful we will continue to hold parental contact information and personal data for pupils on our waiting list for the time a space may become available, unless you email registrar@los.ac to ask us not to. We will not give information about prospective pupils and parents to anyone without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. We are required, by law, to pass certain information to our local authority (LA). Please refer to our Data Protection Policy and the Privacy Notice for Pupils and Parents in the Policies section of the School's website for further information.
