Keynote Speakers

Rev. Dr. Steve Holmes

Steve Holmes started out in ministry in London, serving three churches, before moving to Scotland in 2005. He presently serves on the leadership team of St Andrews BC. His paid work is academic, teaching theology at the University of St Andrews. He has published over a hundred academic pieces, ranging widely across Christian doctrine and Baptist history. He serves on the Doctrine and Unity Commission of the BWA, the Theology and Education Commission of the EPF, the Council of Reference for the Kyria Network, and the local committee of Young Life International.

Rev. Chrissy Remsberg

Chrissy has been Pastor at Beacon Church, Stafford since 2018. Before that, she had expansive experience in youth and young adults ministry, and worked on church plant teams. She has launched a new congregation for a growing international church, and co-wrote a small group study and leadership training course on missional living. My passion is mission and releasing and empowering people within the church to discover their calling.

CYF Stream

What if the future of Children, Youth and Family Ministry isn't about doing more, but about becoming different?

At Ministers Conference 2027 we are pleased to be hosting a CYF stream alongside the main programme. This will be led by Brian Smith, the association CYF lead. If you are following the main programme, you would be welcome to drop into any of these sessions (space allowing).

The CYF stream will be joining the main programme for the beginning and end of the conference.

Monday - RETURN: 'Don't lost your first love' - Keep Jesus at the Centre
Tuesday - REIMAGINE: 'Reimagine rather than reproduce' - Mission, leadership, church and context
Wednesday - RENEW: 'Remember, relinquish, reimagine, renew - Who are we becoming?

Seminar (Tuesday afternoon) - "The Priesthood of all Believers - Leadership isn't restricted? - From doing ministry to equipping people.
