WILL YOU love THE PERFECT WEDDING GUIDE BRIDAL SHOW? THESE BRIDES DID!

“By far my favorite bridal show!
Well worth my time and money.”

“I loved the fun stuff they had going on while you browsed the booths, and the selection of vendors was amazing!”

“The DIY crafts were awesome. I would have come just for that.”

“I loved being able to create a personal connection with the vendors that I was interested in without having to drive all over town.”

“I had a blast with my bridesmaids!”

“This event was amazing! So many vendors of all varieties to talk to, exciting prizes, excellent fashion show, and the exhibitors and staff were all very friendly.”

“Absolutely wonderful in every way.”

“Really loved the show, PWG Bridal Bucks and DIY projects! I've been to many bridal shows in the year that I've been engaged. This was BY FAR the best!”

“I liked the fun atmosphere and that I found exactly what I was looking for in vendors.”

“The event was wonderful. High quality vendors and just the right size!”

“Everyone was having a lot of fun and it was less pressured and more laid back than other shows, and I really appreciated that! The food samples were fantastic too!”

“Loved how the PWG Bridal Bucks worked to save money with the vendors!”

“I really liked meeting with different vendors that I hadn't previously found on internet searches. Enjoyed the upscale vibe too.”

“Thank you Perfect Wedding Guide for bringing so many amazing vendors together in one show!”

HONEYMOON DESTINATIONS

by Paul Dhadda, Exquisite Destination Weddings & Honeymoons

While you can choose to go anywhere in the world on your honeymoon, there are also unlimited options for fabulous newlywed trips that don't require a passport. We've gathered a few ideas here to spark your imagination – some classic spots, and some that are not as well known – but all that are perfect for romantic relaxation and recreation. With options here of lakes, big cities, tropical islands, and cruises, we've included one luxury option and one more affordable “budget” (but still honeymoon-worthy) option of where to stay at each destination.

Lake Powell ARIZONA+UTAH

Like no other place on earth, Lake Powell is a unique environment that is evocative of a moonscape, with deserts, colorful, ancient rock formations, and crystal clear blue water. Lake Powell offers excellent opportunities for you to enjoy a romantic honeymoon retreat with a decided focus on fun water activities. While many people rent houseboats to tour the coves and inlets, you can also enjoy all that Lake Powell has to offer while staying at a resort.

Amangiri

LUXURY

A short drive from the lake is Amangiri, the ultimate desert luxury resort experience.

BUDGET

The Lake Powell Resort is right on the lake, with spectacular views.

Mackinac Island

MICHIGAN

Known as the jewel of the Great Lakes, you will enjoy beautiful vistas, shopping, and walking or biking tours during the day, and watch the town transform at night with its vibrant music and bar scene. No cars are allowed on Mackinac (pronounced “Mack-ih-naw”) Island except for fire and police vehicles, so grab a bicycle or hail a horse-drawn carriage to explore this idyllic vacation setting.

Grand Hotel

LUXURY

The Grand Hotel is a famous, historic resort that tops many “Best Of” lists, and has the “world’s longest porch”!

BUDGET

The Harbour View Inn is a quaint, historic, romantic retreat.

New Orleans

LOUISIANA

New Orleans is a vibrant, bursting-at-the-seams, melting pot of a city that famously inspires indulgence. This is the place to eat, drink, listen to jazz or R&B, take part in a parade, and immerse yourself in the atmosphere. Attend one of their world-class festivals, take a paddlewheel steamboat river trip or a bayou swamp tour, and relish the memories you’ll make at legendary spots like Café du Monde and Bourbon Street.

New Orleans Kayak Swamp Tours

LUXURY

The 4-star Ritz Carlton New Orleans resides in an elegant, historic, Beaux Arts building.

BUDGET

In the heart of the French Quarter is the historic and utterly charming Le Richelieu Hotel.

The Plaza

LUXURY

The renowned Plaza Hotel should be a stop on your itinerary even if you don't stay there!

(Yes, it's THE Plaza Hotel from Eloise at The Plaza!)

BUDGET

The Hudson Hotel is a cool, stylish, boutique hotel in Midtown.

Manhattan

NYC ► NEW YORK

Manhattan is home to captivating neighborhoods and world-class attractions, ranging from museums and Broadway theater, to a variety of cuisine that is as diverse as you'll find. Your honeymoon in "The City That Never Sleeps" will be filled with thrilling memories, as you visit iconic locations such as Central Park, Times Square, The Statue of Liberty, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Grand Central Terminal, and many more.

St. John

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS

St. John is perfect for those seeking a relaxing, tropical island adventure without the crowds. From the Virgin Islands National Park, which covers two thirds of the island, to its legendary beaches, St. John is the quintessential getaway. Hiking, sailing, fishing, paddleboarding, and snorkeling in the crystal clear water with tropical fish and sea turtles, are just some of your potential activities on this unspoiled island.

Grande Bay Resort

LUXURY

Gallows Point Resort offers intimate, luxury, oceanfront villas with spectacular vistas.

BUDGET

Grande Bay Resort: this condo-style resort will help fulfill your fantasy that you're living there.

Maui HAWAII

Hawaii deserves its ranking as a top honeymoon destination, and Maui offers breathtaking scenery and beautiful beaches, as well as vibrant nightlife, dining, and shopping. Once you play at the base of a waterfall, take a catamaran ride, enjoy a luau, snorkel or scuba dive, and become entranced with the “hang loose” vibe of Hawaii, you’ll likely be planning your next visit during your flight home!

LUXURY

Four Seasons Resort Maui at Wailea: enjoy elite amenities and services, plus exclusive island experiences.

BUDGET

Royal Lahaina Resort: 27 acres right on Ka’anapali Beach, with a spectacular luau.

Alaska CRUISE

An Alaskan cruise affords you awe-inspiring views of scenery such as glaciers, fjords, lakes, and snow capped mountains. And wildlife lovers will rejoice in seeing and photographing whales, sea otters, bald eagles, puffins, bears, and more. Indulge in cruise ship luxuries, and add a land tour that takes you through the rugged interior for some true adventure on the “Last Frontier”.

FACE...Your Future... Your Partner... with Confidence

In this interview with Dr. Angell and Jason Peugh, MPAS, PA-C, of Angell Medical Spa, learn what the experts recommend to get your skin glowing, smooth, and picture perfect for your wedding day.

Most people consider how to get in the best shape to look fantastic in their wedding dress or suit. They pay attention to diet and exercise, but many forget to pay attention to what everyone (including the person you're saying yes to) will be looking at the closest: your face! You want every feature of yours to shine as brightly and beautifully as possible. Not only will you capture those memories in your mind in your once-in-a-lifetime moment, but the photos and video will last forever.

skin that glows

lips so kissable

picture perfect

Q: What are the most common concerns that brides come to you with?

Dr. A: Because of the average age of brides, most don't have extensive wrinkles, however, we see many people who genetically have pronounced wrinkles during expression that they don't want to come out in their pictures. For example, deep lines along their forehead when they are excited or surprised, or deep lines between the brows that make them look angry when they're really expressing interest or concern.

JP: Yes, definitely one of the biggest concerns we hear. Yet, no one wants to look frozen!

Q: So how do you fix that? Keep emotions showing, but smooth those lines out?

JP: Botox! Most of our brides are coming to us for their first aesthetic experience. They've seen things on TV or social media that make them nervous about Botox. The reality is that this molecule simply softens muscle contractions, and if placed correctly and in the right doses, it gives a soft, natural look, and maintains all of the expressions that people want to have, both in person and in their photos.

Q: What are some other services that you think benefit brides most?

Dr. A: I would say the skin itself...the texture, the tone, the clarity. We do get a lot of our patients, both the brides and grooms, who have suffered from acne in the past, and still have the scars that remain. They don't realize how much there is to be done that can smooth and even completely erase the scars. I absolutely love Vivace Microneedling for this!

JP: Yes! Microneedling is amazing! I would add that even people who've been good about using sunscreen can have dull skin, dark spots, and uneven pigmentation. We can do chemical peels, laser treatments, and provide instructions on daily skin care that can make a dramatic difference.

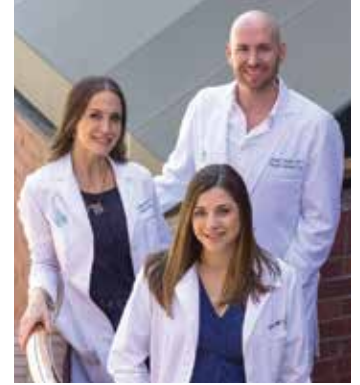

Also, for women with a deeper tear trough, a little under eye filler really makes them look refreshed.

Q: In the beauty world, there's a lot of focus on the lips. Do you get many requests for lip injections?

Dr. A: Absolutely, this is very common, especially with our younger brides. Some people do this just to give a little extra plump - it can be fun. But we also see a lot of people with naturally thin lips or a smile that shows a lot of gum over the top teeth. This can cause people anxiety when they're laughing or smiling. Just a touch of Botox and filler can give a quick and natural looking fix.

Q: What about the rest of the bridal party?

Dr. A: We actually do see a lot of patients who are either in the wedding party, or are mothers of the bride or groom who want to look their best when seeing relatives. We have packages to include the whole wedding party.

FREE FUNDING to transport your guests in style!

When you choose from any of El Dorado County's unique accommodations for your overnight guests, you can receive up to $1000 to transport your group in luxury and style on your wedding day!

Here's Why: The El Dorado County Visitors Authority created this program to help encourage overnight stays, while decreasing the impact on the environment. The level of funding you can receive is based on the number of rooms you book, with a minimum of 20. It's easy to apply, easy on your budget, easy on the planet and an easy way to share your worry-free wedding day with your out-of-town guests!

Here's How: You'll find a map of all the places you can stay at visit-eldorado.com. Or go directly to visit-eldorado.com/shuttle for all the program details and to apply.

WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHERS SHARE THEIR TOP TIPS

We asked seven accomplished, local wedding photographers to share their best words of advice, to help you end up with wedding photos you love, as well as planning and wedding day experiences that run smoothly, and are relaxed and stress-free. These pros have seen it all, so their advice is golden! ♥

Have your hair and makeup professionally done - even if you can do it yourself. It will make a world of difference in your photos. Let's be real, we all stand a little taller, feel a little more confident, and feel pretty when we've had a little bit of pampering.

Be prepared for all the love, kisses, snuggles, and nuzzles. Don't get too caught up in the posing. Just be natural. Hug, kiss, and snuggle the way you normally would.

Get to know your photographer. Check out their social media and read about them on their website. If you get to know them beforehand, it will feel like you're having your photos captured by a friend, which will make you more comfortable and relaxed.

CAPTURE CREATE STUDIOS

The biggest thing to look for when meeting photographers (after photo quality of course) is how you feel with them. Be sure to choose a photographer who you feel comfortable with and who's company you enjoy, because they will be with you during all of your intimate moments throughout the day!

Get an engagement session! It provides some time that is relaxed and authentic to really get to know the photographer, to understand the way they work, and to learn how to be at ease in front of a camera.

Share your wedding day timeline with your photographer. Important info includes: travel time, getting ready and portrait locations, lighting considerations, and wiggle room for any hiccups that might pop up!

FREEZE FRAME PHOTOGRAPHY

Make a list (and check it twice!). I love it when couples come prepared with a list of who they'd like in their family photos. Having a list helps speed the process along and get all the group shots done so there is more time for photos of just the two of you.

For your engagement session (which you should definitely have!), don't be afraid to use props or have it done at a location special to the two of you. The more unique your photos are to you, the more your personality is going to shine through.

Don't forget to breathe! Your wedding day is all about you and the love you share. To avoid looking tense in your photos, try to adopt a "no worries" attitude - relax and enjoy your special day!

Bring vases to keep the bride's and bridesmaids' bouquets in while getting ready, as well as at the reception. It's a lovely way to show off the bouquets both in person and in the photos.

Open the drapes, shutters, or even the windows in your getting ready space if privacy allows. Having natural light spilling into the room is much more appealing in photos than the yellow cast usually created by indoor lighting alone.

Have your photographer and DJ coordinate a big group photo on the dance floor or in another good spot with everyone that's at your reception. These shots can really capture the love and happiness that's being shared by all, and you'll have so much fun later finding everyone in the photo!

MEAGAN LUCY PHOTOGRAPHERS

It's important to know what time the sun will set on your wedding day. The light at this time of day is great for romantic photographs, and this may change the order of how you choose to plan your day.

Leave enough time for getting ready and for travel to the venue(s). Your wedding day can feel like a completely different time zone! Be sure to consider the travel accommodations for your wedding party ahead of time, so there are no worries - only smooth travels for everyone on the big day!

Practice getting dressed before the wedding day - guys too! You wouldn't believe how many times I've photographed guys YouTube-ing how to tie a bow tie! Little things like this could derail your schedule and create unwanted stress.

Have a lifestyle engagement photo session in your own home. Just imagine in 10 years, after your life together has transformed, to be able to look back and relive the feelings of love in your first home!

Capturing the memory of your wedding day on video is such an important addition to photos. Hearing the “I Do” and the cheers of your friends and family as you walk down the aisle is priceless. Our couples tend to watch their video more than they look at their photos!

Choose your photographer based on your connection with them. Having a natural rapport with your photographer allows you to relax and be yourselves in front of the camera. Not only will this make your photos better, but it will also help you stay calm and enjoy your day.

ranallaphotofilms.com

Rita Temple

Be sure to schedule in enough time for getting ready. Ask your beauty pros how much time to allot, because if enough time isn't included in the timeline for the day, any overtime at the start makes the whole day runs late. On time and not rushing = relaxed and happy for your big day!

Surround yourself with vendors and helpers who you trust to run things, so you can focus on the love, and soak in every special moment of your wedding day.

Set aside 15 minutes before the reception for just the two of you alone. This can be photographed candidly from a distance if you'd like. Taking a breather allows you to reconnect before the festivities of the reception begin!
