

Job description

Job title: HR Advisor

Reports to: Head of HR

Salary: £38000 a year

Contract: permanent, full time 35 hours a week

About us

The Cardinal Hume Centre works to prevent and tackle youth and family homelessness. We:

- Provide a home with support for up to 39 young people
- Support children and families in housing or other need
- Offer housing and welfare rights advice to help people keep or find a stable home and to manage their money
- Advise and coach people to find work, learning or training
- Provide immigration advice to help people secure their legal right to remain in the UK to access homes, work and benefits.

In the last year we helped over 1500 people including over 800 families and over 300 children and young people, aiming to break the cycle of homelessness and poverty from a young age. Our approach is personalised, acknowledging the unique complexities of each individual through six key services: residential; family support, legal advice, employment, education and immigration advocacy.

The Centre is based within five minutes' walk from Parliament but works in an area where homelessness in nearly all its forms has increased. Around 3,800 children from Westminster are housed in temporary accommodation. Over 30% of children live in poverty. Families face unaffordable housing costs, a challenging labour market and rising levels of crime.

With an annual income in the region of £3.5 million, the Centre currently employs around 65 dedicated members of staff and around 45 volunteers.

Team context

This role is part of the small, efficient HR and volunteering team, working alongside the volunteering coordinator and reporting to the head of HR. Your additional key relationships will be with all staff, in particular with the finance manager for monthly payroll.

About the role

The overall purpose of this role is to provide a professional, efficient and proactive HR service. You will give HR and employee relations advice and support, co-ordinate the full employee lifecycle, analyse and prepare quarterly HR data reports and contributing to HR initiatives. You'll foster constructive working relationships at all levels across the organisation and build a genuine working relationship with the trade union. The role may have the opportunity to line manage in the future, dependent on business need.

Additional information

The Centre expects all staff to share its commitment to the following:

- an active commitment to ensuring that equality, diversity and inclusion is part of all work
- an understanding of and a commitment to safeguarding adults and vulnerable children in relation to your role
- to be supportive of all teams across the Centre whose work is invaluable to maintain the delivery of our work
- actively support the Centre's use of accurate data recording and monitoring requirements to support client delivery, to help ensure our interventions are impactful

Our people - we believe each person matters:

Our clients

Our clients guide everything we do. We're here to help children, families and young people experiencing or at risk of homelessness, or clients who have urgent needs that can be met at the Centre and not elsewhere.

We value every person; this is central to our work

We seek to develop trusting relationships with our clients. We rely on them to help us improve and develop our services so we include them wherever possible in our work.

Our staff and volunteers

Our staff and volunteers are diverse in their backgrounds, and their skills and experience. Many have lived experience of the challenges our clients face. We are proud of our warm welcome and our team's commitment to support people facing disadvantage to escape the cycle of poverty and homelessness.
