

News Brief from Mark C. Jensen, CEO, ReElement Technologies Corporation Innovators in Critical Minerals & Rare Earth Element Refining

New Podcast Ties Entrepreneurship to Refining Breakthroughs

(2025 / Edition 2)

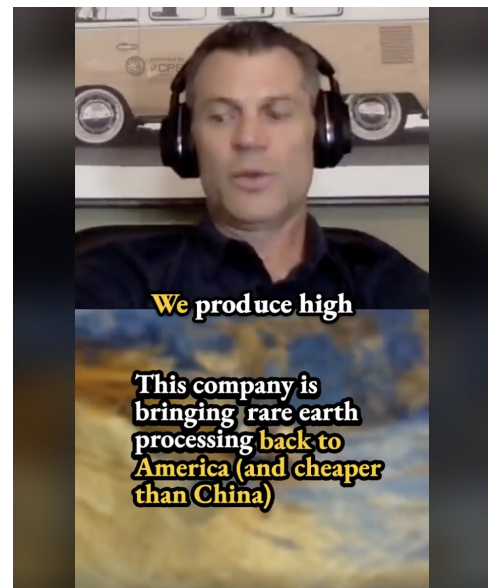

FISHERS, Ind. (Aug. 12, 2025) - Welcome to our second edition of ReElement Technologies News Briefs.

I am excited to share with you a new podcast featuring my colleague Mark LaVerghetta with SunCast Media host and founder Nico Johnson, published on Aug. 7. We greatly appreciate the opportunity to share our story with SunCast's listeners and others who report on (and may be concerned about) China's dominance in critical minerals and rare earths global supply chains, the U.S. energy transition, national defense, advanced manufacturing, or business and environmental sustainability.

In this in-depth podcast, Mark offers insights into the entrepreneurial mindset that has propelled the company since its earliest days 10 years ago. He also discusses ReElement's proprietary process for refining critical mineral and rare earth
