

PASS THE CARDS

Here is a walkthrough of the exercise and some easy topics to play with.

You can read about the game some more in Collaboration Explained, Jean Tabaka, 2006

FREE DOWNLOAD

1. Give everyone in the room an index card and a pen
2. Each person writes down an answer to the prompt (e.g. “Best chocolate bar”)
3. You then walk around the room and pair up with someone
4. Share your answers with each other and discuss
5. As a pair, you must agree on a score for each answer (you can choose any whole number based on the limit you choose)
6. Write the agreed number on the back of the card
7. Switch cards with you partner and find a new partner
8. Repeat this process (Steps 4-7) for the desired number of rounds
9. Total the scores on each card and compare the rankings

Some light hearted topics to practice with:

Best celebrity dinner party guest
Best chocolate bar
Best holiday destination
Best takeaway cuisine
Best TV series of all time
Best movie ever
Best music artist/band
Best pizza topping
Best crisp flavour