Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - A complete copy of Form 990 and all relevant schedules is provided in paper or electronic form to the Executive Director and all board members. Board members are given at least one week to review the document, being asked to pay particular attention to the relationship of the mission to prominent activities, the financial health of the organization, expense categories (particularly the ratio of program expenses to administrative) and disclosure of conflicts of interest. Any questions or concerns related to the document are then addressed at a regular board meeting, and any corrections are relayed to the document's preparer.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Any family relationships are disclosed at their initial onset. At each separate occasion when the Board voted on compensation, individuals with any family relationship excused themselves from the vote, as duly noted in the minutes. At the start of the year, each board member signs a statement reaffirming the conflict of interest policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The finance committee is comprised of a majority of independent persons. In the case where a potential conflict of interest exists, those parties excuse themselves from the vote (no known conflict of interest exists at this time). For both the Executive Director and the Director of Operations, the finance committee reviewed comparability data in determining their pay rates.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - Documents are available upon request, as stated on the organization's website. Much of the information is also available via Candid.

	Missions Trips - A key part of raising awareness for the ministry and its needs is through facilitating short-term mission teams into Nepal. A secondary purpose of the team is to take in supplies in the forms of goods and money for the day-to-day operations of the homes. All team members raise their own support, so that no donor funds are taken from the general pool.	116,105	116,105	0
