Seabridge Chairman and CEO Rudi Fronk noted the departure of long-time board members Mr. Jay Layman and Mr. Eliseo Gonzalez Urien and their new roles as Board advisors. Mr. Layman worked as President and COO for over 10 years and has served as a director of Seabridge for over 13 years. During his tenure he made significant contributions to the growth and strategic direction of Seabridge. Mr. Gonzalez-Urien is an accomplished and enthusiastic geologist who has made a remarkable contribution to the evolution of Seabridge, particularly to our exploration successes, since he first became a director 19 years ago. "Seabridge has been fortunate to have had the benefit of their guidance for such a long time and, on behalf of all of our shareholders, I thank them for all they have done for us." To facilitate a smooth transition at the Board level, both have agreed to serve as advisors to the board for an additional year.

At the same time, we are delighted to have Mr. Colin Joudrie join our board. Mr. Joudrie has over 35 years of experience in the mining industry in roles that will enable him to make a substantive contribution to the board's consideration of technical matters, joint venture negotiation and management of large project development, as well as property evaluation and acquisitions.

Seabridge holds a 100% interest in several North American gold projects. Seabridge's assets include the KSM and Iskut projects located in northwest British Columbia, Canada's "Golden Triangle", the Courageous Lake project located in Canada's Northwest Territories, the Snowstorm project in the Getchell Gold Belt of Northern Nevada and the 3 Aces project set in the Yukon Territory.
