

PREPARE YOUR VEHICLE TO SAIL TO AND FROM ALASKA

Getting your vehicle ready for its voyage to Alaska is simple if you follow these guidelines.

1. REMOVE PROHIBITED ITEMS

Firearms & Ammunition

Explosives, Flares, Fireworks

Aerosols

Gas Cans or
Gas-powered Tools

Hazmat Materials

Propane

Solvents

Oil-based Paints

Please note that it is illegal to have firearms on either the Anchorage or Tacoma Terminals per Title 33 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Undeclared articles will result in a $1,753 charge and/or notification port security/local law enforcement.

Hazmat or Hazardous Materials contain high-risk elements or solvents, including (but not limited to) paint, household cleaners, spot removers, adhesives, nail polish remover, automotive products, degreasers, paint strippers and thinners, refrigerants, foam blowing agents, lithium batteries, e-cigarettes, dry-ice, and coolants. If you are unsure if an item is considered hazmat, you can check for these indicators on the product label:

2. PROPERLY LOAD PERSONAL EFFECTS

- Do not block driver's seat 360° view
- Do not restrict driver seat from going all the way back
- Avoid loose items in cabin

- Do not load items in front passenger seat
- Do not load items above window line
- Avoid loose items in cabin

- Items not blocking window view
- Items do not restrict full front seat movement
- Items are in boxes or containers

- Items are below the vehicle frame
- Items are secured as best as possible
- Items are contained and not loosely stored

Tailgate and rear attachments - such as bicycle or storage racks - will not be accepted. Rooftop cargo attachments are subject to approval and additional costs. Please contact TOTE's quote team with your Quote ID number for more details prior to dropping off your vehicle at the terminal.

3. 1/4-TANK OR LESS

Make sure your vehicle has less than a quarter tank of gas prior to drop-off at the terminal.

Electric Vehicle Policy

TOTE Maritime Alaska has placed an indefinite suspension on the shipment of electric vehicles (EVs), plug in hybrids, and roll-on/roll-off (RO/RO) lithium-ion battery powered machinery.

QUESTIONS?

Contact the Vehicles Department in Anchorage or Tacoma for any clarification on prohibited items:

Tacoma

253.238.8450 or email Vehicles@totemaritime.com

Anchorage

907.265.7252 or email ANC.Vehicles@totemaritime.com