

Moves and Appointments

Posted on Mar. 20, 2020

By Andy Sheets

Tax Notes' Moves and Appointments is a regular column providing the latest on personnel changes within the tax community.

Private Practice

Kevin M. Jacobs has joined Alvarez & Marsal Taxand LLC as a managing director in Washington. He focuses on corporate tax issues. Previously, he was branch 4 senior technician reviewer with the IRS Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Corporate), where he worked on the proposed built-in gain and loss regs, the global intangible low-taxed income regs, and debt-equity regs. He earned his JD from the University of Florida Levin College of Law and his LLM from New York University School of Law.

Andy Baik has joined Mayer Brown's tax transactions and consulting practice as a partner in San Francisco. He focuses on cross-border tax issues, including services to Asian multinationals investing in the United States. Previously, he was at EY. He earned his JD from Georgetown University Law Center.

Dan O'Neil has joined Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP as an associate with the executive compensation and benefits group in New York. He focuses on retirement and deferred compensation plans, executive compensation, and benefit plan issues related to mergers and acquisitions. Previously, he was an associate at Dechert LLP. He earned his JD from Georgetown University Law Center and his LLM from New York University School of Law.

KPMG LLP has announced the following additions to its tax practice:

- Rose Jenkins is a managing director with the Washington National Tax international tax group. She previously was at the IRS as special counsel with the Office of Associate Chief Counsel (International). She earned her JD from the University of Texas School of Law and her executive LLM from New York University School of Law.
- Mohamed Jabir is a principal with the global mobility services practice in New York. He focuses on tax issues related to mobility and structuring. Previously, he was a partner at EY.
- Wendy P. Rowls is a managing director with business tax services in New York. She focuses on compliance and tax planning.
- Daniel DeRocco is a managing director with the ignition tax data and analytics practice in Milwaukee. Previously, he was president and CEO of Datanoi Inc. He earned his MS in taxation from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
- George Hayes is a partner with the tax asset management practice in San Francisco. He focuses on tax issues concerning the real estate industry. Previously, he was real estate tax director at PwC. He earned his BBA from Simon Fraser University.

- Brett Thompson is a principal with the economic and valuation services practice in New York. He focuses on real estate issues. Previously, he was a principal at EY. He earned his MS in real estate and construction development from the University of Denver.
- Gary Price is a principal with the business tax services family office in Atlanta. Previously, he was vice president of tax at Georgia-Pacific LLC. He earned his MS in tax from the George Washington University.
- Jay Carreno is a managing director with the business tax services practice in Miami. Previously, he was tax senior manager at EY.

Lobbying

Glen Frost has been appointed president of American Citizens Abroad Global Foundation. He is also global legal counsel for the group and its sister organization, American Citizens Abroad, in addition to being managing partner for Frost & Associates LLC. He is experienced in tax controversy, tax planning, and estate planning matters. He earned his JD and LLM from University of Baltimore School of Law.

Have an item for Moves and Appointments? Please send any announcements or tips to MovesColumn@taxanalysts.org.