

Vitezslava Karolova

She is a Czech actress and singer. She has performed with the DOMINO children's choir since childhood. The first performance in which she appeared was the opera České Jesličky in the Silesian Theater Opava. She then studied at the Opava Church Conservatory, where she studied opera singing. From 2015, she studied musical drama - musicals - at the Jaroslav Ježek Conservatory and VOŠ in Prague. During her studies, she portrayed several drama and musical roles such as Rizzo from the musical Pomade, Fanka from the play Robber, Meredith - Five in the same dress and others. She completed her studies at the conservatory with a final graduation exam. To this day, she attends the same conservatory, where she continues her education in music, specifically in the field of Popular Singing. Her professional performance in the theater began in 2019 in the CZECH CABARET SHOW, where she still performs today. She played the two main female roles of Irina and Klára in the Czech wartime musical Brothers. In the new theater season, she has two theater premieres ahead of her, one musical and the other drama. The singer has been holding regular chanson recitals since 2018 together with pianist Ester Godovská. In addition to theater activities and concerts, she also teaches singing.