2026 Theme: "Grow Down"

Sermon Topic: "When All is Dark - Hope in God"

When all is dark - Hope in God

The day that Jesus died, from about 12PM to 3PM while Jesus was on the cross, all was dark on the earth. //Mark 15:33

When Jesus was taken from the cross and buried in a borrowed tomb, the stone was sealed. The tomb was dark. All hope seemed lost. All was dark. //Mark 15:46

Then Came the Morning //Mark 16:2-4

- 1.) The stone at the entrance of Jesus' tomb wasn't rolled away to let Jesus out, it was to let us in, reviving Hope in the hearts of His followers. //Mark 16:5-6
- 2.) The empty tomb and the Risen Christ didn't change everything in the world at that moment, but it does change everything for the individual who places their faith and confidence in The Risen Christ! //2 Corinthians 5:17
- 3.) Biblical hope is having a confident expectation that what God has said, He will do.

"Why so downcast, O my soul... hope in God." //Psalm 42:5

Hope is the anchor for the soul! //Hebrews 6:18-19

Consider: We learn from the crucifixion and the resurrection of Jesus that when all is dark, we must let the hope of The Morning's Light fill our heart!

Today's Worship Set:
