2026 Theme: "Grow Down"
Series Title: "The Ten Commandments"
"Do Not Covet - the Gateway Command"

//Anchor Verse: Exodus 20:17

1. The 10th commandment is often considered the "Gateway" command because it regulates our internal desires rather than outward actions.

//Matthew 15:19

2. To covet is to lust or crave something jealously. It is possessive and wants to take something away from someone else (Romans 13:8-10). The fulfillment of all of the law is love. Love God / Love People.

3. The antidote for coveting is gratitude. It is a shift in our mind and heart from focusing on what is missing, to being thankful for what is present.

//Ephesians 5:3-4

4. The commands reveal the divine standard of God for His people. As followers of Christ, we compare ourselves against God's word. Only then can we identify sin, which is failure to meet the standard.

//Romans 3:23; 6:23; 7:7-25
