

Board Member Application

The Pampa Economic Development Corporation is a Type B corporation that receives over $1 million annually from a half-cent sales tax. Chapters 501 – 505, Local Government Code is the section of Texas law that contains the rules governing the use of the economic development sales tax. The Pampa EDC strives to provide incentives for eligible business/industrial development and community development projects. Our goals include helping with the retention and expansion of local businesses, entrepreneurial startup funding and recruiting of outside companies. In Addition, community development projects are permissible under the statute allowing the Pampa EDC to provide funding on eligible projects as determined by our board.
