Fact check: Is Kevin Spacey really being honoured at Cannes?

Kevin Spacey is about to touch down on the Croisette to receive a lifetime achievement award on Tuesday. But before you cry out that Cannes Film Festival has lost its marbles, bear in mind that this is more of a Cannes-concurrent promotional stunt than anything else. Here's what you need to know.

In what sounds like a hoax, disgraced actor Kevin Spacey will be handed the Award for Excellence in Film and Television by the Better World Fund at a gala in Cannes. The award will be presented at the Fund's 10th Anniversary Gala Dinner tomorrow, with the fund confirming that Spacey will be honoured for his "artistic brilliance" and "impact on cinema and the arts."

"We are truly privileged to welcome Kevin Spacey as our Guest of Honor and Honoree at the Better World Fund Gala," Manuel Collas De La Roche, The President & Founder of the Better World Fund, said in a statement.

Kevin Spacey a Cannes, premio dal Better World Fund

A Cannes arriva Kevin Spacey, premio Oscar per American Beauty e I soliti sospetti, colpito da un nuovo caso di molestie sessuali dopo essere già stato coinvolto in uno clamoroso scandalo di abusi sessuali in Gran Bretagna e Stati Uniti dal quale è uscito assolto.

(Keystone-ATS) Il 20 maggio riceverà il premio alla carriera dal Better World Fund, ente indipendente dall'evento che assegna il premio. Un galà di beneficenza che, va detto, non è nel programma del festival di Cannes ma a margine.

Nel luglio 2023, a Londra Kevin Spacey è stato assolto dalle accuse di violenza sessuale mossegli da quattro uomini. Uno di questi uomini ha anche intentato una causa civile contro l'attore, il che significa che rischia un nuovo processo.

We Need to Talk About Kevin (Spacey)

More often than one might like, the French film industry fetes American men who have been credibly accused of sex crimes. One of this year's men in question is Kevin Spacey the subject of multiple accusations of sexual assault and sexual harassment, including by actor Anthony Rapp, who alleged that Spacey made drunken sexual advances toward him when Rapp was 14 and Spacey was 27. On Tuesday night, the actor received a "special lifetime achievement award" at a Cannes gala hosted by the Better World Fund, whose mission statement references "the power of entertainment to ignite effective change, and raise global awareness on women's rights and child protection," except, I guess, if Kevin Spacey wants to come and do a speech. The speech and award, according to Variety, is a shameless publicity stunt for a movie that Spacey is trying to sell at the festival.

The disgraced actor received a lifetime achievement award in Cannes this week—at a gala that had nothing to do with the prestigious film festival.

Kevin Spacey recibe un premio en Cannes tras sus acusaciones de abuso: “La historia se repite”

El actor estadounidense recibió un premio a la excelencia en cine y televisión tras varios años desaparecido por acusaciones de agresión sexual. Al recogerlo, cargó contra las listas negras de Hollywood

Nueve años han transcurrido desde la última aparición oficial de Kevin Spacey en el Festival de Cannes. Su regreso este año ha sido discreto, ni estrellas o nombres conocidos, ni admiradores o incluso manifestantes, han aparecido cerca de la gala con la que la fundación Better World ha rendido homenaje al actor, celebrada en el hotel Carlton en mitad de La Croisette.

Kevin Spacey recibió el premio a toda una vida de “excelencia en el cine y la televisión”, suponiendo un regreso a los focos para el ganador de dos Oscar, cuya carrera se hundió tras varias acusaciones de agresión sexual y conducta inapropiada por parte de más de 30 hombres. Estas acusaciones supusieron su salida fulminante de varios proyectos, como la última temporada de la serie House of Cards.

Kevin Spacey returns to the spotlight to receive award and slams Hollywood 'blacklist' culture during speech at Cannes gala - as it's claimed he is 'not welcome at the Film Festival'

Kevin Spacey returned to the spotlight to collect a Lifetime Achievement Award at a gala in Cannes following claims the director is not welcome at the film festival.

The controversial actor, 65, who was cleared of sexual assault on four men two years ago, took the opportunity to slam 'blacklisting' in Hollywood.

Spacey was honoured on Tuesday at a gala hosted by the Better World Fund as he continued his return to the public eye after a lengthy UK trial in 2023 which cleared him of the allegations.

Spacey, who is making his first visit to Cannes since 2016 to promote his new film, The Awakening, was 'recognised not only for his decades of artistic brilliance but also his enduring impact on cinema and the arts,' according to a statement.

A Masterpiece of Compassion: Amma's Focus on Gender Equality Honoured at Cannes

It was a profound moment for this year's Cannes Film Festival in France, one of the most prestigious and influential film festivals in the world. Amma's initiatives for gender equality were celebrated amidst the red carpets of an event dedicated to cinematic storytelling, high art, and social change.

It's another signal that Amma's compassion is being widely recognised as a cultural force—something as powerful as any artistic or political movement.

The stage was set by the Better World Fund, an organisation that aims to engage the international community to build a more just and equitable world. As part of Cannes, it honoured the work done by Amma for women's rights and gender equality through Amrita University and AMMACHI Labs.

Kevin Spacey, heureux d'être « de retour » à Cannes, y dénonce son isolement à Hollywood

Bien sûr, il y a Cannes et Cannes... et l'acteur américain, qui a eu affaire avec la justice pour des accusations de « méconduite sexuelle », n'est pas l'hôte du Festival international du cinéma

Cela a un peu un goût de Canada Dry, d'être invité à Cannes sans faire partie du gotha convié par le Festival international du film, cependant Kevin Spacey n'en est pas moins heureux d'y être « de retour ». « Je me sens entouré de tant d'affection » et de « soutien », a-t-il commenté, selon Deadline. Lui qui y a été si souvent reçu et célébré comme la super star qu'il était avant ses ennuis avec la justice revient donc par la petite porte. Mais suffisamment grande pour que son séjour cannois ne passe pas inaperçu. Et l'iconique Keyser Söze d'Usual Suspects a bien l'intention de se faire entendre.

Pourquoi la venue de Kevin Spacey est-elle passée si inaperçue à Cannes ?

Ce mardi, l'acteur, acquitté de neuf accusations d'agressions sexuelles en juillet 2023, a fait un retour discret sur la planète Cannes, à l'occasion d'une remise de prix organisée en marge du Festival. Si sa venue n'a guère attiré les foules, elle a toutefois ravivé les polémiques en ligne.

Tandis que quelques baigneurs s'immergeaient sous le halo de la pleine lune, un homme franchissait les portes de l'hôtel de luxe Le Carlton, ce lundi 20 mai à Cannes, face à une poignée de photographes. Un homme - ou plutôt un acteur autrefois adulé - visé par des dizaines d'accusations d'agressions sexuelles depuis 2017, et finalement acquitté de neuf d'entre elles en 2022 et 2023. «C'est très agréable d'être de retour», a déclaré Kevin Spacey devant les caméras. Pour marquer ce retour dans les hautes sphères du cinéma, où il fut longtemps une figure incontournable, l'acteur oscarisé pour American Beauty et Usual Suspects recevait ainsi le prix d'honneur de la fondation Better World Fund.
