Mary, a lifelong Sheridan-area native, was born on May 18, 1930, in Sheridan. She passed away on February 11, 2025, in Tacoma, Washington following a fall and heart complications. She attended school in Sheridan and Clearmont, graduating from Clearmont High School with the class of 1948.

When she met James Herbert (Herb) Zingg, it was love at first sight. They married on October 1, 1949, beginning a 60-year marriage. Herb passed away in 2009.

Mary was a hard worker from childhood. She worked on the ranch along the Lower Tongue River alongside Herb and later spent 35 years as a bank teller at Bank of Commerce/First Interstate Bank before retiring. At the same time, she raised her two children, Linda and John. She was a dedicated 4-H leader and an avid supporter of her children's 4-H and school activities.

Mary loved people and had countless friends. She adored her grandchildren and was the perfect grandmother. She was happiest when preparing family dinners, baking cookies, and traveling with Herb. Many trips were made to Washington State to spend time with her grandchildren, Tina and Justin.

We are all grateful for the love and guidance she provided, giving us a strong foundation in life. She will remain in our hearts forever.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, George and Henrietta Mereness; her brother, William (Bill) Mereness; her great-grandson, Deacon Shattuck; and her beloved husband, Herb Zingg.

She is survived by her nephew/son, John Zingg of Sheridan; her daughter, Linda Shattuck (Dave) of Eatonville, WA; her brothers, Robert (Bob) Mereness of Forsyth, MT, and Charles (Chuck) Mereness (Kathie) of Chinook, MT; and her sister, Louise Johnson of Hardin, MT. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Additionally, she leaves behind her grandchildren, Tina (Dan) Harthorn of Chehalis, WA, and Justin (Rikki) Shattuck of Eatonville, WA. She was blessed with five great-grandchildren: Reagan Shattuck, Waylon Shattuck, Dillon Shattuck, Rylan Harthorn, and Alison Harthorn.
