Darlene Ann Felde, 88, of Sheridan, Wyoming, peacefully passed away on Thursday, September 4, 2025, at Green House Living in Sheridan, Wyoming, with her loving family by her side.

Darlene was born September 25, 1936, to Wendell and Ruth (Youngberg) Thomas. She grew up in Sheridan, graduating from Sheridan High School before pursuing her passion at beauty college. On June 4, 1955, she married the love of her life, Daniel Felde, and together they shared 70 wonderful years.

Darlene worked as a beautician for many years, building lasting friendships with those she met. She was a principled woman, never afraid to speak her mind, and she truly knew no stranger—her warmth and openness made everyone feel welcome. She was happiest outdoors, tending to her flowers or her garden, or painting flowers and scenes from nature. Family was at the center of her life, and she and Dan cherished time spent with their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, often hosting family gatherings filled with love and laughter.

Darlene is preceded in death by her beloved son, Kenny; son-in-law, Bill Babione; and sister, Betty Major. She is survived by her husband, Dan; daughters Danna Babione and Shelley (Bob) Williamson; grandchildren Jennifer (Wade) Betz, Stephanie Babione, Nathan (Katie) Williamson, and Christene (Jacob) Kornell; and great-grandchildren Will and Sara Betz, Taylor and Harper Babione, and Brayden, Owen, Theodore, and Nicole Williamson.

Her kindness, strength, creativity, and devotion to family will be dearly missed and forever remembered.
