

Celebrating The Life Of Erin Dearcorn

Erin Ashlee Dearcorn departed from her mortal body to be united with Christ in heaven on October 13, 2025. Erin was born to David and Nancy (Lewis) Dearcorn in Rock Springs, Wyoming, on April 18, 1974. Erin is now reunited with her father Dave who preceded her in death in February of 2023. Erin graduated from Tongue River High School in 1992 and had a passion for music. She was a gifted artist who's self-taught piano skills and vocals could steal away your attention from any room in the house. Erin truly had an artist's hand and whether the medium was clay or wood, she loved creating. Most often those creations would become special gifts and nothing filled her heart more than to give away one of her masterpieces. Erin was a hard worker – a trait she earned watching her father from a young age. She was passionate about her pets and often brought home family cats for the home to enjoy. Her love of horses and dogs began at a young age and that love would never leave her. Erin was gifted with a huge heart and took in the castaways of life to which many she would serve as a loyal friend and care-taker. But her greatest love was her three girls. They would talk daily and shared more inside jokes than the family may ever understand. Erin is preceded in death by her grandparents and her father, Dave. She is survived by her three daughters, Ryver (Mason) Stone, Dalaynie Dearcorn, and Ivy Dearcorn; her mother, Nancy Dearcorn; her brothers, Eric (Teresa) Dearcorn, DJ (Elizabeth) Dearcorn, nieces (whom she adored), and her long-time companion, Shane Bryant; several cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends far and wide.

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is done
But here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.
