Jayme Was born March 30, 1943 at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas to Thurman and Edith Scott. She was joined later by brothers Martin and Gordon. The family moved several times while Thurman was in the Army before settling in San Antonio, Texas in 1951.

In high school Jayme developed a life long friendship with Judy Jenkins. They were neighbors and have children the same age. Whether talking on the phone or writing letters, they were always close. They liked to travel, snowski and square dance. After retirement, Jayme moved to Sheridan to be close to her son's family. She enjoyed attending all her grandson's various sporting events and activities.

Jayme fought Dementia and Alzheimer's for several years, spending her last year at Green House Living For Sheridan where she shared stories of the state of Texas and her nursing career with anyone who would listen.

Jayme was proceeded in death by her parents Thurman and Edith.

She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
