

Diane Walter Hoffman, beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on August 1st at the age of 69. She was born February 19, 1957, to Dorothy and John Walter in California and was raised in Martinez with her siblings, Jan Walter Reis and Bruce Walter.

Diane graduated early from College Park High School in Pleasant Hill, California. After graduation, she married Terry Hoffman and moved to Deaver, Wyoming, where they raised their three children, Wes, William, and Sarah. She later made her home in Story, Wyoming, and took great pride in her children and their accomplishments. Diane had a lifelong love of animals, especially horses and dogs. She was also passionate about history, natural healing, gardening, hunting, and living close to the land. She became a certified Herbalist and, after retiring from Crazy Woman Enterprises, a family business she helped build, opened Ancient Nature's Remedies.

Her faith in God was central to her life. Diane was strong, independent, hardworking, and a true pioneer spirit. She loved deeply, lived boldly, and never hesitated to help a friend in need. She treasured her lifelong friendships and considered many of her friends her chosen family.

Diane was preceded in death by her parents, Dorothy and John Walter, and her son, William Hoffman.

She is survived by her daughter, Sarah Anderson; grandchildren Tristan and Sydney Anderson; great-grandchildren Bryson and Bexley Anderson; her son William Hoffman's kids Jenna Taylor and Ethan Hoffman, her son and daughter in law, Wes and Jolene Hoffman; grandchildren Bryton, Jessica, Samantha, William, Brayden, Joslyn, and Juliette; and great-grandchildren Zander, Huxon, Julian, and Bexlee.

Diane will be remembered for her faith, strength, generous heart, love of family and animals, and unforgettable spirit. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Celebrating The Life Of Diane Hoffman

February 18, 1957 - August 1, 2026

A Life Well Lived

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure

In Loving Memory Of Diane Lea Hoffman
