1. Friendship Congress: 1954. The poster reads: "Congress of Friendship – Israel–Soviet Union" and depicts an Israeli and a Soviet Union flag.
2. The Jewish Welfare Board: 1918.
3. Israel Hapoel 25th Anniversary Sports Rally: 1952. An advertisement for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of Hapoel sports in Israel.
4. EL AL Israel National Airlines: An advertisement for the national EL AL airline.
5. 11th Yom Ha'atzmaut Poster: 1959. A poster produced by the government in honor of Israel's 11th anniversary, with the window shutters resembling the number 11.
6. Mishmar L'Yladim. A poster indicating the importance of children to the building and maintenance of the State of Israel.
7. Torah V'Avodah. An advertisement promoting the need to physically work the land while also being an observant Jew. The quotation at the bottom reads: "From the burning Diaspora to building a religious Land of Israel."
8. 8th Maccabi Congress: 1946. An advertisement promoting the 8th Maccabi Congress, which promotes Jewish athleticism.
9. Israel and an Active Independence: 1952. An advertisement promoting the need to be active builders in Israel's future, published by the Jewish Workers Union.
10. 32nd Yom Ha'atzmaut Poster: 1980. A poster produced by the government in honor of Israel's 32nd anniversary. The imagery is inside a heart because the Hebrew number 32, לב, uses the same letters as the word heart.
