

Grow Something Greater

In Greenville-Pitt County, all roads lead to rewarding and well-paying careers

With companies spanning advanced, pharmaceutical, and medical device manufacturing, you can make nearly $20 an hour out of high school. When it's time for the next stage in your career, our companies and organizations invest in your growth with apprenticeship programs, on-the-job training and the opportunity to earn industry-recognized credentials in the trades.

FAST FACTS

Cost of living 14% lower than U.S. average

Average salaries starting at $20/hour

25+ continuing education certification programs at Pitt Community College

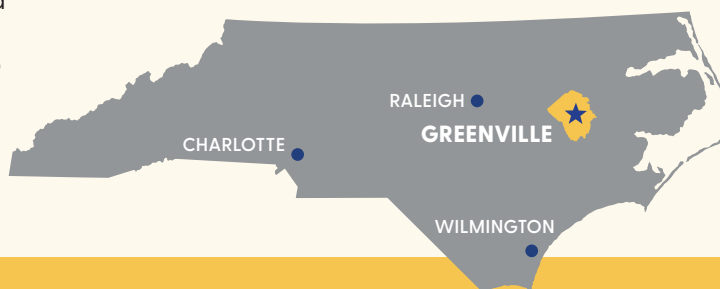

EMPLOYERS HIRING

"I earned a welder certification from Pitt Community College and started my career with Hyster-Yale, which offers great pay and benefits. I'm so grateful that at only 23 years old I've been able to buy a new car and I'm now planning to buy a house."

KESEAN EDWARDS

Welder at Hyster-Yale Materials Handling
Farmville Central High School '19

Learn how you can grow a greater career in Greenville-Pitt County, North Carolina