 - Part 18 paperwork filled out with 10,000 people
 - Both fire and police chiefs need sufficient coverage the final determined will be made by the Village Board
 - No backpacks in the venues or on the shuttles
 - The shuttle stops need signage
 - Persons Alley needs to be closed
 - Fillmore Ave between Church and Riley needs to be closed seconded by Trustee Lazickas with 5 Ayes and 1 Nay.
 - Police Chief Welch stated that he has issues with the event. He will need additional manpower and help from other agencies. He stated that he knows the great things it does for the community, but public safety is his responsibility. He is aware most issues don't come from businesses. He stated that if this permit passes, business owners will need to police your own property. He also has concerns about consumption and public gathering in streets with alcohol not bought at the venue. Police Chief Welch stated that fencing is helpful but Riley Street is still a problem. He said that with no open container law, it is very hard to control. He said that you can't kick people out if they brought their own because there is no law and that he will do everything he can to run the event if the Village Board votes yes, even though he has issues. The Village Board discussed the possibilities of other police resources and the unknown cost. The Village Board had a discussion over tabling versus a resolution with restrictions. The Code Enforcement office will be checking occupancy and fire code and stated that it will be enforced at the event. The Village Board had a discussion over the issue of tailgaters. Fire Chief Denz discussed multiple issues previously relayed to the Village Board. He stated that all members of the EA Fire Dept are volunteers, community orientated people and some say they will not be doing the event because of the treatment they receive. He said they would have to call for mutual aid if the event needed more help. He discussed previous issues that happened with this event and that the Part 18 paperwork needs to be done. Fire Chief Denz stated that the public risk is too great. Mayor Mercurio started a discussion about parking and towing during the event. The Village Board had another discussion on tabling the application versus approving with restrictions. Clerk-Treasurer Jerackas stated that the Heart of Music was asked to submit their application early for review but didn't submit it until the Tues before the Village Board meeting. Chris Welch stated that he needs approval now to move forward with the event in a timely fashion and stated that he didn't turn it in sooner because the application wasn't complete. He also spoke about what the Heart of Music Festival is doing to reduce the footprint of the event. Clerk- Treasurer Jerackas noted that the Police Chief asked for reduced hours because our officers work extra-long hours because they either work the event and then their regular hours or their regular hours and then the event, which is a lot when working this event. Fire Chief Denz discussed how the changes don't solve the problem of the ambulance eta and extra security can't transport people with medical issues. The Village Board discussed making the hour changes by restriction as the Village asked from the beginning 1pm-9pm or 12pm-8pm were proposed. Fire Chief Denz discussed calling in other agencies, them using their own time, vehicles and gas used. The Village Board discussed whether hour changes and other items can be restricted. Trustee Viger asked if there was going to be a paid parking lot at the rink, and the applicant said yes. She asked for signage, crossing guards and cones at the bus stops. The applicant agreed. She asked about the free water stations, the applicant said they can't due to health and safety issues. Trustee Viger asked for reduced cost water at the event. She asked for bags to be checked on the bus and not let into events. She expressed the fact that backpacks should not be allowed in the venue, bars or at the rink, due to it being a safety issue. Trustee Viger stated that Persons Alley needs to be closed and said that construction lights which are needed were not put on the permit and were missed in previous years. The Village Board had a discussion about ticket sales and applicant agreed to hard stop at 7,000.

§104-3 A of the Village Code: No person or persons shall keep or house horses, cattle, swine, poultry, pigeons or any other animals or bees other than household pets within the limits of the Village of East Aurora without a permit from the Board of Trustees, after investigation, that the keeping of the animal or animals or bees in question will not be objectionable or offensive by reasons of noise, smell or other cause. Such a permit shall be revocable at any time by the Board of Trustees.

My name is Rachel Denz and I am writing to request your consideration for a poultry special-use permit for our property at 863 Lawrence Avenue. Our primary purpose for raising hens is for the educational opportunity for our 4 children. Our children will get a glimpse into animal husbandry as they observe the life cycle of chickens from egg to adulthood. Raising hens will foster responsibility and empathy for living things while they participate in the cleaning, feeding, and overall health of the animals. Raising chickens and collecting eggs will help our children connect food sources to the animals that produce them and promote a basic understanding of sustainable food systems. Additionally, the older children have been involved in designing the chicken coop and will continue to gain practical skills as they assist my husband in building the coop. Thank you for your consideration.

Hello Rich,

Attached is a cutsheet for the intended lighting fixtures, a detail sheet for the signage design, as well as a PDF of the submitted drawings.

Project Narrative:

This project is a means of improving the effectiveness of signage directed towards the streetside of the property. By utilizing matching materials while also incorporating new metal paneling, our design will blend with the existing exterior and create a new, modern focal point from street view.

Let me know if you need anything else. Thanks in advance.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

MEMO

TO: Mayor Mercurio and Village Board of Trustees

FROM: Elizabeth Cassidy, Code Enforcement Officer

DATE: April 3, 2025

Our office has accepted a special use permit for an accessory building on an Open Space (OS) zoned lot, submitted by owner East Aurora Forest Company, LLC, Hiram Rhoads member. Mr. Rhoads owns the property next door at 816 Warren Dr and purchased the lot in 2023. The lot is zoned Open Space likely due to both DEC and Federal wetlands on the property. The owner is requesting approval to place a shed in the front portion of the OS lot where the property is already cleared and is contiguous with his yard. The location also avoids any wetlands on the parcel. Additionally, the owner has submitted an application to the Zoning Board of Appeals for a side yard setback, which will be heard at the May meeting.

Village Code section 285-51.5 requires the Village Board to refer the Special Use Permit application to the Planning Commission for their review and recommendation. The Village Board shall then schedule a public hearing prior to the SEQRA determination and decision.

This is an Unlisted action under SEQRA.

A County referral is required for this application due to the proximity of the property to a municipal boundary (Town of Aurora).

If you have any questions, please contact our office at 652-7591.

VL Warren Drive | EAForestCo@gmail.com

3 April 2025

Members of the Zoning Board:

We would like to apply for a Special Permit and Variance for a shed to be built on the Vacant land, zoned Open Space on Warren Drive.

The Village code allows for an accessory building to be built on the open-space; however code requires a substantial, 50-foot, setback when adjacent to residential property lines.

We would like permission for the shed to be built approximate 7 feet from the adjacent property line, in an area which is already clear of trees and undergrowth. The 7-foot setback would be greater than the standard 5-foot setback required for sheds on residential property.

This request is made to limit the number of trees disturbed. I do not wish to cut any live trees on the property to make the 50' set back possible. I would like to be able to place the shed oriented North-south along the Eastern property line, closet to Warren Drive.

This shed would help house the necessary equipment to maintain the land and keep the wooded area healthy and flourishing.

Attached to this application is a diagram of the property's survey depicting the approximate location we request, the location illustrated on a GIS map provided by the Building Department, along with photos of the proposed location flagged out, and a copy of the building contract to clarify any questions.

Thank you for your time, and please reach out if anything needs clarification.

Sincerely,

Hiram Rhoads, Co-Owner

We, the Village Board of East Aurora, NY, authorize the acceptance of a Hamlin memorial plaque for Hamlin Park, as proposed by Scott Emblidge. The text will need to be pre-approved for historical accuracy.

Feb. 21, 2025

36" by 30" plaque, valued at $5K, with studs to attach to a boulder. The boulder would need separate crowd fund-raising.

Cicero Hamlin, born on November 7, 1819, at Austerlitz, Columbia County, NY, emigrated to Western New York in 1836. He joined his older brother, John William Hamlin, in the frontier town of East Aurora. In 1839 at the age of 20, Cicero purchased a general store, located at the west end of the village, near the present vicinity of Main and Hamlin Avenue.

In 1846, Hamlin moved to Buffalo, first working as a partner with Wattles and Hamlin dry goods business, and eventually merging with Mendsen and Company. Hamlin's company was the forerunner from which William Hengerer emerged. Cicero Hamlin, one of the most successful of Buffalo's businessmen, built the Hamlin Block on Main Street, as well as the popular Buffalo Driving Park. There up to 40,000 spectators gathered to watch trotting horses race. Hamlin was also president of the Buffalo Grape Sugar Company (American Glucose Company) with a near monopoly on glucose sweetener. At his peak, Hamlin was the largest employer in Buffalo with over 1000 employees.

In 1855, Hamlin established the Village Farm in East Aurora as a breeding nursery for what became the Standardbred Horse. Starting with 55 acres where his former dry goods store was located, the farm eventually expanded to 600 acres. At its peak, 748 horses were stabled there with two race tracks, as well as numerous barns. The main barn was located on Main Street where North Willow now is, running through what was the center aisle of the barn. The Judge's Stand, originally located at the driving park on South Street, was then relocated to the Village Farm.

The Village Farm was universally recognized as the premier breeding nursery for the trotting horse. In 1882, Cicero Hamlin went to Lexington, KY, to buy a champion show horse named Mambrino King for $17,000 to improve his stock. Over 30,000 people came to East Aurora to see Mambrino King, including a delegation sent by the king of France. The French government declared Mambrino King to be "the handsomest horse in the world." Mambrino King died in 1899 and was buried on the farm with a grave marker, now found in the front yard of 100 North Willow Street.

Wanting to show his appreciation to the citizens of the Village of East Aurora, Cicero Hamlin purchased and gave the land that became Hamlin Park in 1899, with only two conditions: that it would always remain a public park, and that the village would spend at least $100 per year to maintain it. Hamlin died on February 20, 1905, just two weeks after a dispersal sale of all horse stock at Madison Square Gardens in New York City. His lasting legacy is that almost every champion Standardbred horse during the 20th century traced their pedigree back to the Village Farm of East Aurora, NY.

CICERO JABEZ HAMLIN

Cicero Hamlin was born on November 7, 1819 at Austerlitz, Columbia County, New York. In 1839, at the age of 20, Cicero purchased a general store, operated by his brother, located at the west end of East Aurora that was then called the town of Willink. The store was located at the current vicinity of Main Street and Hamlin Avenue.

In 1846, Hamlin moved to Buffalo where he engaged in the dry goods business, first as a partner with Wattles and Hamlin and then eventually merging with Mendsen and Compony. As a pioneer among Buffalo merchants, Hamlin's company was the forerunner from which The William Hengerer Company emerged. Cicero Hamlin went on to become one of the most successful of Buffalo's businessmen by building the Hamlin Block on Main Street as well as also building the popular Buffalo Driving Park that would attract up to 40,000 spectators that came to watch trotting horses compete in races. Hamlin was also President of the Buffalo Grape Sugar Company that became the American Glucose Company that had a near monopoly on glucose sweetener used in a wide variety of products. At his peak, Hamlin was the largest employer in Buffalo with over 1,000 employees.

In 1855, Hamlin established The Village Farm in East Aurora as a breeding nursery for what became the Standardbred Horse. The Village Farm started as 55 acres located on Main Street near where Hamlin's former dry goods store was located and eventually expanded to 600 acres. At its peak, 748 horses were stabled there with two race tracks as well as numerous barns. The main barn was located on Main Street where North Willow Street is now running thru where the center aisle of the main barn once stood. The Judge's Stand that once stood at the driving park on South Street was relocated to The Village Farm. The Village Farm was universally recognized as the premier breeding nursery for the trotting horse. In 1882, Cicero Hamlin went to Lexington, KY to buy a champion show horse named Mambrino King for $17,000 to improve his stock. Over 30,000 people came from all over to East Aurora in order to see Mambrino King including a delegation sent by The King of France that declared Mambrino King as 'the handsomest horse in the world'. Mambrino King died in 1899 and was buried on the farm with a grave marker now located in the front yard of 100 North Willow Street,

Wanting to show his appreciation to the citizens of the Village of East Aurora, Cicero Hamlin purchased and gave the land that became the park that bears his name to the Village in 1899 with only two conditions: that it would always remain a public park and that the Village would spend at least $100 per year to maintain it. Hamlin died on February 20, 1905 just two weeks after a dispersal sale of all horse stock at Madison Square Gardens in New York City. The legacy that Cicero Hamlin left behind is that just about every champion Standardbred horse during the 20th century traced their pedigree back to The Village Farm of East Aurora, New York.

This is my edited text for the plaque:

Cicero Hamlin, born on November 7, 1819, at Austerlitz, Columbia Country, NY, emigrated to Western New York in 1836. He joined his older brother, John William Hamlin, in the frontier town of East Aurora. In 1839 at the age of 20, Cicero purchased a general store, located at the west end of the village, near the present vicinity of Main and Hamlin Avenue.

In 1846, Hamlin moved to Buffalo, first working as a partner with Wattles and Hamlin dry goods business, and eventually merging with Mendsen and Company. Hamlin's company was the forerunner from which William Hengerer emerged. Cicero Hamlin, one of the most successful of Buffalo's businessmen, built the Hamlin Block on Main Street, as well as the popular Buffalo Driving Park. There up to 40,000 spectators gathered to watch trotting horses race. Hamlin was also president of the Buffalo Grape Sugar Company (American Glucose Company) with a near monopoly on glucose sweetener. At his peak, Hamlin was the largest employer in Buffalo with over 1000 employees.

In 1855, Hamlin established the Village Farm in East Aurora as a breeding nursery for what became the Standardbred Horse. Starting with 55 acres where his former dry goods store was located, the farm eventually expanded to 600 acres. At its peak, 748 horses were stabled there with two race tracks, as well as numerous barns. The main barn was located on Main Street where North Willow now is, running through what was the center aisle of the barn. The Judge's Stand, originally located at the driving park on South Street, was then relocated to the Village Farm.

The Village Farm was universally recognized as the premier breeding nursery for the trotting horse. In 1882, Cicero Hamlin went to Lexington, KY, to buy a champion show horse named Mambrino King for $17,000 to improve his stock. Over 30,000 people came to East Aurora to see Mambrino King, including a delegation sent by the king of France. The French government declared Mambrino King to be "the handsomest horse in the world." Mambrino King died in 1899 and was buried on the farm with a grave marker, now found in the front yard of 100 North Willow Street.

Wanting to show his appreciation to the citizens of the Village of East Aurora, Cicero Hamlin purchased and gave the land that became Hamlin Park in 1899, with only two conditions: that it would always remain a public park, and that the village would spend at least $100 per year to maintain it. Hamlin died on February 20, 1905, just two weeks after a dispersal sale of all horse stock at Madison Square Gardens in New York City. His lasting legacy is that almost every champion Standardbred horse during the 20th century traced their pedigree back to the Village Farm of East Aurora, NY.

And this is the text Rob sent in approval:

There's a lot here, and I am not sure of the source material for some of it, so I can only tell you what I know. The East Aurora information seems accurate, for the most part. The "Town of Willink" went out of existence in 1818, and the Village of Willink was incorporated in 1849, so, although the post office for the entire area was named Willink, the west end would simply have been part of the Town of Aurora at that point. Regarding the part about the "king of France," I am not sure who originally proclaimed this the "handsomest horse" comment. There are varying reports, but the most reliable is from Hamlin himself, who advertised that French commissioners (judges) gave Mambrino King that title. I can't find anything that says the King of France sent them. -Rob

I addressed Rob's concerns with the above editing.
