Gregory Van De Velde

OVERVIEW

When I discovered my best friend's wedding photos, I realised that a « beautiful photo of us » was the best gift we could receive. An eternal gift. After 10 years of photography and travelling, I stopped off in Bora Bora during my round-the-world trip, where I decided to settle down and combine my two passions in photography: capturing the most beautiful landscapes in the world, using a very special camera that offers unrivalled quality and colour. But above all, to show people how beautiful they can be in a photo.
