

What is a Recovery Residence?

ACDA is overseeing site development and construction of the microunits. Work includes utilities, foundations, circulation, and common-area improvements necessary to deliver safe, durable, and efficient homes.

Levels of recovery residence and support structure