VERSATILITY

He can play both as a right-back and a left-back perfectly. His excellent ball control and comfort using both feet allow him to do this. This makes him a valuable utility player for the team when covering for an injured or suspended player.

DEFENSIVE SOLIDITY

While he primarily excels in the attacking phase, he demonstrates defensive solidity and active participation in defensive duties. His tracking back during counter-attacks or in the attack-to-defense transition is usually disciplined and composed.

Tactical analysis

OFFENSIVE GAME

He is an elusive, creative, and fast full-back when joining the attack. Furthermore, he usually wins his 1v1 duels, and often creates partnerships down his flank to double-team the opponent and easily get into the opposition's box.

DYNAMISM

He provides his team with great dynamism; he is a player who constantly looks to get on the ball. As a result, he often drifts into whatever area the ball is in to participate in the build-up play.
