

Short Autobiography Examples

1. A Student's Autobiography

My name is Jackson. I am a 13-year-old student in my 7th grade. I was born and raised in a small town in Minnesota in a family of a math teacher and a mechanic. Thanks to my mom, math is my favorite subject in school. Among extracurriculars, I love football and music. I dream about becoming a game developer in the future and creating exciting gaming worlds for enthusiasts across the world. I believe that my persistence will help me accomplish my goal.

2. A Family Pet's Autobiography

My name is Daisy, and I'm a cute little British shorthair. I was born on a local farm, where I spent the first months of my life among my brothers and sisters. When I grew up a little, I was adopted by my family. I love spending time with my people, goofing around, and playing. I also enjoy spending time in the backyard of our house. I love my family and am grateful for being a part of it.

3. An Athlete's Autobiography

Hi, I'm Linda, and I am 14 years old. I started gymnastics when I was only 4. Since then, sports have been the biggest part of my life. I practice every day to excel in gymnastics. Although it gets hard and challenging from time to time, I love being an athlete for the dedication, resilience, and discipline that it teaches me.
