Memberships are non-transferable. The right of a Member to vote and all of his or her rights, authority and control concerning the Corporation or its property shall cease automatically upon the termination of membership in the Corporation by expiration, resignation, cancellation, expulsion or otherwise. The Board of Directors may determine dues for the general membership for each fiscal year. The Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine what, if any, assessments are to be levied against Members. Nonpayment of dues or assessments shall be grounds for suspension of voting rights during the period of delinquency as determined by the Board of Directors. Dues are due and payable prior to expiration. Failure to pay dues shall result in immediate and automatic revocation of a Member's right to vote at any Membership meeting. Prior to the termination of any membership for cause, the Board of Directors shall notify such Member in writing and the Member shall have the right to request a hearing by the Board. Upon the member's failure to request a hearing, his or her membership shall terminate within ten (10) days after the notice of intention to terminate the membership by the Board. In the event of a hearing, the membership shall only be terminated upon a vote of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board of Directors. Updated 7/10/2026
