Wide-brimmed hats. A fashion trend we started a century ago.

Visitors have come to embrace our old west bend, and the added charm it brings to our eclectic mix of modern-day offerings. For shopping, we recommend our various jewelry stores, gift shops, and boutiques. And don't forget to stroll down 5th Avenue, which offers incredible discoveries within a small, walkable area. People come to Old Town for other things, too, like to dress up and catch a wine tasting event, see an art gallery show, or dance the night away. Come enjoy socializing in a picture-perfect setting that can't be found just anywhere.

Some legacies are written. Others still move.

A century ago, Arabian horses began dancing beneath the California sun not for spectacle alone, but for purpose.

W.K. Kellogg believed in education. In generosity. In creating something beautiful enough to endure.

That belief lives on today through the Arabian Horse Center where students care for the horses, traditions continue, and Sunday Horse Shows still welcome new admirers into the world of the Arabian horse.

What began as a vision has become a legacy. What became a legacy now shapes the future.

Scan to watch The Gift of the Horse, a short documentary using rare archival footage to celebrate 100 years of W.K. Kellogg's Arabian horse legacy.
