How It Works:

While your run-of-the-mill real estate agency takes a generous 25-40% cut from your commission, we simply receive a transaction fee of $200 for every $200,000 you sell. We will store all of your documents electronically for seven years for $175 per transaction, and you get to access all of our real estate tools for only $120 a month! Transaction coordinators are available based on your needs, and while space is limited these days, we have personal spaces for a small monthly fee. But our cafe and conference area are always open for use with clients!
