OUR MISSION: To preach and teach the word of God so that all people can recognize the need for salvation and having a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. We seek to meet needs as they arise and provide opportunities for service in God's Kingdom so that those who are saved will be encouraged to continue to grow in their relationship with Him.

SOMETHING FROM SAM

Good morning! —

On this Sunday that has been designated as "Palm Sunday", I am looking forward to listening to Tyler Watson as he brings a message from God's Word! I appreciate all he and Rachel do here at Meadow View! There are a few announcements to make about what will be happening during Easter week. As far as community events are concerned, the annual Easter egg filling will take place on Tuesday, April 1st at 5:00 PM at the Frazeyburg Town Hall for those who want to volunteer to help. Then on Saturday, April 4th at 10:00 AM the kids from Frazeyburg will have their Easter egg hunt at 10:00 AM. As far as Meadow View is concerned, this coming Friday, April 3rd, we have been invited to join our brothers and sisters from the East Forty Church of Christ as we celebrate Good Friday with a service at their church in Norwich. I will be preaching and the service will begin at 7:00 PM. They will be having a snack and fellowship time after the service. Then on Easter Sunday, April 5th, we will again be having TWO services here at Meadow View. The difference this year will be the times for the services. We will have the first service at 8:00 AM and the second service at 10:00 AM. Also, we will be receiving a "Thirty Pieces of Silver" offering that will be going to a ministry that we have been supporting for the past few years... "Faith Comes by Hearing". You can designate the offering any time between now and Easter Sunday by marking it for "Vision 2033". May we all continue to STAY FAITHFUL and keep PRAISING THE NAME OF JESUS!

TYLER'S COLUMN

Good Morning,

Today as we dive into Scripture, we're going to focus on a simple, but incredibly powerful statement Jesus makes as He enters Jerusalem.

In Luke 19:40, He responds to the Pharisees by saying, "If they (those praising Him) keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

That raises some interesting questions...

Can stones really cry out?

Can mountains leap like we read in Book of Psalms 114:6?

Can hills sing and trees clap their hands like Book of Isaiah 55:12 says?

Can these inanimate parts of creation truly do these things? Maybe the better question isn't, "can they?", it's "why would they have to?"

That's what we're going to explore together this morning. Thank you for being here, and for choosing to worship together today.

MISSION SPOTLIGHT

Overcomers in India

Native Indian, Binoy Thomas, and his wife Rebecca, head the mission. Their goal is to share the pure truth of the gospel to the most populated country in the world. Presently living in Kerala, India, Binoy is not only preaching the Word, but is diligently working to translate Bible Study booklets into the various languages of the Indian people.

It's Donut Sunday!

Palm Sunday

When I think of Palm Sunday, I first think of Jesus riding into Jerusalem, the streets lined with people who were welcoming Him as their "King". It reminds me of what many people enjoy doing here in America and in other places around the world... we love parades. For example, on Thanksgiving Day and New Year's Day, we line the streets or turn on TV sets to watch parades. We even honor Super Bowl or World Series teams with parades in their home cities. Parades are often held to celebrate victories and honor returning heroes. I once read about an elderly missionary who was returning to the United States to retire. He and his wife had spent over 40 years serving in Africa. But now he was alone. His wife, as well as his two children had long since found their final resting place in the soil of Africa. As he got off the plane he saw a great crowd of people waiting at the gate. Some were holding signs, others were waving banners, and he could even hear sounds of music above the shouting voices. For a few seconds he thought, "Can it be? After more than 40 years of service, all these people have actually come out to welcome me home?"

But no, that was not the case. On his plane was a politician returning from Africa. During his visit the politician had been catered to and waited on. Now he was being welcomed home with all the ceremony his nation could provide. As he waited at the airport, the contrast was almost more than the old missionary could bear. For a moment he began feeling sorry for himself, so he started to pray. "Father in Heaven, why? I've served You faithfully for so long, and yet, look. I didn't expect much, but is it wrong to desire that there be some kind of a welcome home?" Then the old missionary remembered a song that he often taught to the people he served in Africa, a song he had sung on countless occasions... "This world is not my home, I'm just a-passing through; my treasures are laid up somewhere beyond the blue; the angels beckon me from heaven's open door, and I can't feel at home in this world anymore." It's true... this world is NOT our final home! And as children of God, someday we want to hear Jesus say, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter the joy of your Master."

WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?

The Bible teaches that salvation and the forgiveness of sins is achieved only by the grace of God through the blood of Jesus Christ. Matthew 26:28; Romans 5:9; Ephesians 2:8-9; 1 Peter 1:18-19; 1 John 1:7.

The Bible teaches that one receives God's grace by:

- 1) Having faith in Christ, trusting Him as both Lord and Savior. John 3:16; Acts 16:31; Hebrews 11:6
- 2) Repenting from sin. Luke 13:3, 5; Acts 2:38, 17:30; 2 Corinthians 7:10; 2 Peter 3:9
- 3) Confessing Christ. Matthew 10:32-33; Acts 8:37; Romans 10:9-10
- 4) Being immersed (baptized) into Christ for the forgiveness of sins and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Mark 16:16; Matthew 28:18-20; John 3:3, 5; Acts 2:38, 22:16; Romans 6:3-11; Galatians 3:26-27; Colossians 2:12; 1 Peter 3:21
