Local Educator Chosen To Attend The Tennessee Arts Academy

(Your Name) _____, a (Teacher or School Administrator) _____ at (Name of Your School or School System) _____

has been selected to attend the 2027 Tennessee Arts Academy (TAA) Summer Institute in July. The Tennessee Arts Academy is the nation's premier professional development program for arts education. Since its founding in 1986, more than 8,000 educators who have participated in Academy programs have touched the lives of over 3 million students. The Academy's foundational event, the TAA Summer Institute, is currently held on the campus of Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

The Tennessee Arts Academy Summer Institute trains more than 325 K–12 teachers and administrators every summer, who in turn impact approximately 200,000 Tennessee students each year in their individual school districts and classrooms all across the state. Taught by nationally and internationally renowned instructors and artists, the Academy's advanced curriculum, cutting-edge methodology and unique philosophical perspective maximize participants' learning experiences. With renewed energy and knowledge, educators trained at the Tennessee Arts Academy Summer Institute are better equipped and motivated to raise achievement standards and effect positive and lasting change for Tennessee students, providing them with the necessary skills to become creative and productive members of our work force and society.
